CLEANING THE ERIE STABLE.

We quote some of the allegations in the bills of complaint, upon which the New York Supreme Court has ordered the suspension of the Fisk and Gould ring from the management of the Erie Railway:

All the directors suspended are charged with sacrificing the Erie interest for personal gain; with schemes to perpetuate power; with the issue of illegal bonds and stocks; with having increased the whole amount of the outstanding common stock from $34,265,000, as it was in August, 1868, to the enormous amount of $70,000,000; that during the same period, with occasional fluctuations the market value of its stock and bonds have steadily fallen, showing a loss to bond and stockholders of $14,483,989. To this amount must be added the depreciation on the ten millions of dollars of stock issued in March, 1868.

The complaint further charges that said Fisk, Gould and Lane, for the purpose of making money for themselves, made purchases about this time of a very expensive and highly ornamented white marble building, formerly known as Pike's Opera House, now as the Grand Opera House, Fisk and Gould owners, and James Fisk, Jr., manager-in chief or proprietor of the performances, which cost nearly $700,000, paid in part from money of said company, with several dwelling houses adjacent, purchased therewith; and that they also purchased several houses on Twenty-third street and Twenty-fourth street, near the corner of Eighth avenue; and that said Fisk, who resides or rooms in one of them, from which he has a private connection to the box of said Fisk's in said Opera House, and from which the inmates of said houses, and women who practice upon the stage, can pass to and fro; that said contract for the leasing of a portion of said Opera House is a fraud upon said company and its creditors; that it is injurious to the business of said corporation to have its offices in a building occupied for operatic performances; that the frequenting of said building by the large number of young clerks in the employment of said Company, and by opera and theatre women at the same time, and the rehearsals by day with thread of ballet girls and the echoes of operas and songs, and all sorts of instruments resounding in said building, are demoralizing to said young men, and destructive to the interests of the Company; that free boxes and hospitality are there granted to detectives, roughs, and men of the town; that special theatre trains are run; that they dabble in political intrigues, making themselves the objects of mob violence in consequence of gold gambling, by resorting to such devices as free lines of omnibuses, calcium lights and display, showing that the Company is now embarrassed and in bad credit; that payment of the bills are delayed, wages of employes in arrears, and that there exists a large, threatening, floating debt.

The New York Times says: The effect of the judicial action now announced will be to rid the Erie corporation of the rule which has brought it to the verge of ruin, and to compel Gould, Fisk and their partners to render a minute account of the moneys of the Company which have passed through their hands, and of the property belonging to it which is still under their control. The mystery of the Erie iniquity will be unveiled. Of course, the conspirators will not surrender their booty without a struggle, dexterous and desperate. Their appeal to Tammany for help will scarcely go unheeded, and we may expect to witness a revival of the scenes which not long ago disgraced the Bench of this city, when the same corrupt interest was in jeopardy. That any resistance we can offer will be of much avail we do not believe. The order of a competent Court has suspended the eight active members of the Ring; they have no longer control of the company or its concerns; the secrets they have guarded will be dragged into open Court. It is satisfactory to know that of the four Judges in the district in which these proceedings have been instituted, at least three may be relied upon to maintain the integrity of the Bench against any assault which the deposed usurpers may venture upon.

To the legitimate working of the road these proceedings present no obstacle. Of the seventeen directors composing the Board, eight have been suspended; the nine who remain constitute a quorum. The bondholders and stockholders, and the public generally, will look to them for such an administration of the company's concerns as will in some degree repair the consequences of mismanagement and restore a confidence which Gould & Co. have done their utmost to destroy.

St. Domingo Annexation Discussed—The Reason—Counting the Money—A Bishop at the White House—Custom Receipts—Colored Detective—The Legal Tender Act—Full Cabinet Meeting.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26, 1869.

ST. DOMINGO ANNEXATION DISCUSSED.

It is stated that Senator Cole, Judge O'Sullivan and Mr. Hollister, of New York, had an interview with the President yesterday on matters relating to St. Domingo. Judge O'Sullivan, who has been familiar with the affairs of the island for some years, explained to the President the condition of the island and the desire of the people for annexation. The President appeared highly interested, asking numerous questions bearing upon and affecting the scheme of annexation. It seems when the recent negotiations were taken up, President Baez called together his Ministers and the Senate, and explained to them what it had taken place between the two governments, and asked each of the gentlemen present to express their views candidly, and as to what they considered to be the best interests of the Dominican people. After each had complied with this request, they unanimously declared that to accept the proposition of the United States would be highly advantageous to the peace and prosperity of the Island.

THE REASON.

The Navy Department to-day ordered the ironclad Miantonomah to report to the Port Admiral at New York. The ordering of this vessel, the Terror and several other national vessels to New York was doubtless superinduced by the approach of the Spanish war vessels in that harbor, not in anticipation of any trouble, but merely to assure the foreign visitors of our preparation for all emergencies.

THE LEGAL TENDER ACT.

The fact has been ascertained from undeniable authority, that so far from the statement being true, as frequently published, that the Supreme Court, at its recent session, would decide upon the constitutionality of the legal tender act, the court has in reality not considered the subject in any form, and will not consider it at the term just closing.

COUNTING THE MONEY.

The investigation and counting of sheets of money and coin in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, at the Treasury Department, which has been in progress for the last three days, was concluded yesterday, and a report satisfactory has been submitted to Secretary Boutwell.

One of the colored policemen on duty on the metropolitan force of this district, was yesterday appointed a United States detective, and reported for duty at police headquarters this morning.

A BISHOP AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Bishop Morris, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, called at White House to-day, in company with Rev. Dr. Newman, of this city, and paid his respects to the President.

ALL PRESENT.

Meeting of the Seceding Members of the Virginia Republican Convention—Reasons for their Withdrawal.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

RICHMOND, November 26.—A meeting of the seceders from the Republican Convention yesterday took place this morning at the office of the State Journal, the Republican organ. Sixty members were present, being about one-half the original Convention. James H. Clements, the former candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Republican ticket, was chosen chairman. J. H. Platt, member elect to Congress, recited the causes of the withdrawal, which he said were mainly found in a determination of a party in the Convention to choke off, by fair or unfair means, a large number of the members present. He thought the majority report adopted by force was a direct censure of the President and Congress, and in opposition to the Republican party of the country. He believed if the Republican party of Virginia could be put in accord with the Republican party of the country, and made so that men of liberal views could join it, it could carry the State. The declaration in the address to Congress about the danger to Republicans in the State were untrue, and Congress would discover the deception to the ultimate injury of the Republican party.

John Jenkins, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, said that the things stated of the people of Virginia in the address, were untrue, and the life of a Republican was as safe in Virginia as in New York.

O. A. Hine, leader of the Republican Constitutional Convention, said this movement was not wholly the result of yesterday's proceedings, but of a growing desire among the people that the Republican party in Virginia should be put upon a liberal and respectable basis by which it might be enabled to carry the State.

The general drift of the speeches was that times have changed, and that the Republican party of Virginia must be put in accord with the Republican party of the country; proscription and reckless denunciation of the people of the State must be dropped, as obsolete ideas, and the party must be made strong and respectable enough to carry the State on its own merits as the party in other States does. All the speakers disclaimed the idea of forming another party, and only desired to reorganize the one now existing.

A committee of sixteen was appointed to call a Republican convention at such a time as it may think proper for reorganization.

The Convention of seceders adjourned after appointing the Committee of Sixteen. It is believed the Convention for reorganization will be called shortly after the session of the Legislature commences. There were twelve colored members of the Convention at the seceders' meeting.

ALABAMA.

Assembling of the Legislature—State Fair a Success, &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 26.—The Legislature met this morning after an adjournment of two days. Business in Senate was unimportant. In the house Mr. Mayer, a democratic member from Mobile, and but recently seated, was expelled on the ground that during the war he was a County Commissioner. The credentials of Mr. McKinstry, Radical, defeated by Magee by 800 majority, were sent up, and it is understood he will be admitted at an early day. McKinstry was in the Legislature before the war, and was probate judge. His disabilities have not yet been removed.

The State Fair is a decided success. Over 5,000 persons were present yesterday and to-day. The fair closes to-morrow.

The Alabama river is very full of shipping steamers.

The Leo, which sails to-night, carries over one thousand bales of cotton.

Judge Balcom Modifies his Order in the Ramsey-Erie Railway Suit.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BINGHAMPTON, November 26.—Judge Balcom has this day corrected and modified his order in Ramsey's suit against the Directors and Company of the Erie Railway, so that it only stays the plaintiff's proceedings, not exceeding twenty days, to enable defendants to make a motion in Madison county, or some other proper county, in the Sixth district, where all the parties can be heard, to set aside the injunction and orders of Justice Murray. It gives the directors an opportunity to be heard.

AKRON.

The Atlantic & Great Western Railroad Difficulty—Earnings and Debts of the Road—Interesting Court Proceedings—The End Near at Hand.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

AKRON, November 26.—The Erie Railroad cases were brought up to-day before Judge Boynton, all the parties being present except Jay Gould, who is sick, F. A. Lane and the Erie clique. The following facts are significant: Jay Gould and W. Archdall Doherty, as receivers, swear to the following abstract of the earnings of the Atlantic & Great Western Railway from April 9th to August 31st, 1869, inclusive: From freights, one million four hundred and ninety-two thousand, seven hundred and fourteen dollars and seventy cents; from passengers, three hundred and eighty seven thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and six cents; from mails, fourteen thousand, one hundred and seventy dollars and twelve cents; from express, thirty thousand, five hundred and seventy-two dollars and seventy-three cents; from miscellaneous, ten thousand one hundred and two dollars and ninety-one cents. Total, one million nine hundred and thirty four thousand seven hundred and six dollars and twenty-seven cents. The road, meanwhile, has moved seven hundred and sixty-three thousand four hundred and thirty tons of freight, and two hundred and ninety-three thousand four hundred and seventy-four passengers.

The debt of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway is as follows: Mortgage bonds, thirty million three hundred and forty-eight thousand nine hundred dollars. The accrued interest thereon is seven million and twenty-four thousand three hundred and seven dollars and fifty cents. The debt is fourteen million dollars. The floating debt is thirteen million dollars. Total, ninety-four million three hundred and seventy-three thousand two hundred and seventy dollars and fifty cents.

There are affidavits in the Court that the road cannot sell for fifteen millions if put on the market with interest.

When the Common Pleas Court convened this afternoon, Judge Burke, for the plaintiffs, John R. Penn got the floor and tried to push his motion for throwing Leonard J. Woodman, Henry Evans, A. Holden, Nathaniel C. Cresson, Edward Satterthwaite and John Walker out as parties defendant. The opposing counsel contested him on the ground that the Court was sitting to hear the motion of the removal of the receivers, and that the Atlantic and Great Western Railway Company at least was a complaining party to make that motion. The Erie lawyers claimed that the hearing could not be on the last motion because the receivers had not received personal service of it.

The Court decided that the presence of Jay Gould in Court here two weeks ago, and the action taken by his counsel in opposing his removal, removed that objection.

Mr. McFarland urged an immediate hearing on the motion to remove the receivers, and the Erie attorneys, in every way, protracted.

An affidavit dated November 24th, from Jared B. Baldwin, a New York physician, swore that then Jay Gould was too sick to leave his residence in Fifth avenue.

To this a New York gentleman in Court replied that to his positive knowledge Jay Gould was at the offices that same (Wednesday) evening.

The next delay was in request of the Erie counsel for just twenty minutes to get a telegraphic answer from Gould on the proposition for an adjustment as just forwarded to New York. The intermission was allowed, but darkness came, and nothing was heard from Gould. The adjournment was made until evening.

In the evening Mr. A. Hutchins, for Wisner H. Townsend, a defendant, proceeded with the motion for the removal of the Receivers, and when the name of W. Archdall O'Doherty was spoken, W. W. McFarland, of New York, Attorney for the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, stated that he was authorized by Mr. O'Doherty to tender his resignation of the Receivership. Thus Gould is left alone in the contested office. Mr. Hutchins read an affidavit from Colonel Rush C. Hawkins, Director, formerly attorney for the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, wherein he gives the particulars of a compact between Gould and McHenry for getting an order of sale quietly, thus throwing the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad into their hands. The Company was then to be reorganized, and Gould was to take sixteen twenty-eighths of the stock, and McHenry twelve twenty-eighths. There was also a letter from Frederick A. Lane, attorney of the Erie and Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, to Hawkins, proposing that the Erie and Atlantic and Great Western make a joint arrangement for appointing Receivers, that no antagonistic element might interfere.

Another affidavit from Hawkins averred that the plaintiff, Robert R. Penn, in whose motion the receivers were appointed, was instigated by the Erie Co., in collision with it, and in the employ of it, or of its officers, and that the object of his action was to prevent the payment of the rent due to the Atlantic and Great Western.

James McHenry's affidavit declared Gould to be a large holder of Erie and Atlantic and Great Western bonds and securities, according to his own repeated statement at the time of his appointment to the receivership, and since.

When the attorneys were about to begin their pleas, a delay was made, and finally an adjournment was asked until to-morrow morning.

Judge Boynton stated that he would have no more delays, and now we may expect either a settlement or a pursuing of the case to the end. Negotiations for a compromise are lively, and may be completed to-night. The new parties in the scene to-day are Judge Hitchcock, Attorney of the Mahoning division of the A. & G. W., to watch its interests, and David Chadwick, M. P., of London, representing the majority of the English interest. In the morning Gould will probably resign his receivership, and Judge Reuben Hitchcock, of Painsville, Ohio, be appointed his successor.

Menagerie Building on Fire—Animals Turned Loose—A Lion Kills Several Sheep and Has an Encounter with a Bull—Reunion Celebration—Gas Supply, &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CINCINNATI, November 26.—Wednesday night an incendiary, it is supposed, set fire to a building at Connersville, Indiana, used as the winter quarters for Forepaugh's menagerie. By order of the Superintendent the animals were let loose. This, in the end, proved needless, for the fire was arrested before destroying the building. The lion killed several sheep on the fair grounds and had an encounter with a bull, which he finally killed. All the wild animals were eventually captured and safely recaged. Damage $4,500.

Lane Seminary to-day celebrated the reunion of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church lately consummated at Pittsburgh.

The City Councils resolved this afternoon to contract with the Gas Company to furnish the citizens gas for ten years at two dollars and twenty five cents per thousand cubic feet, exclusive of tax.

First, That succession to real estate, where such successions do not exceed five thousand dollars, shall be exempt from succession tax where such real estate descends to lineal descendants' predecessors.

Second, That the law imposing a tax on incomes, which expires by limitation in 1870, should be re-enacted, with the modification that two thousand dollars shall be exempt from such tax.

Third, That the special tax imposed upon liquor dealers be increased to fifty dollars.

The convention also adopted a resolution recommending a modification of the law in reference to more security in affixing stamps to packages containing fermented liquors.

Spanish Republican Manifesto—London "Times" on the Irish Question and French Affairs—Troops Sent to Ireland—Mr. Luby a Candidate for Parliament from Queens County—Thiers Party Reunion—Enforcement of an Old Russian Law—Two Thousand Jews Removed.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, November 26.—The Times, in an editorial on the treatment of the Irish questions at the next session of Parliament, says: "The ministry must be prepared with a land reform bill, framed with an eye to justice and statesmanship. At the same time authority must assert itself; treason must not be permitted, nor praises of murder be sung; a declaration must go forth that Ireland shall not be suffered to sink to the level of Greece or the Sicilies. Such preparation must be made, whatever the injury may be to the budget, that there shall be left no possible temptation to resistance."

The Times considers the election of Rochefort to the Corps Legislatif the last impotent protest of an angry populace. The Gamins have sent one of themselves to the Chamber, but this does not prove that France is ripe for Gamin government. France, with the exception of the first district of Paris, has returned men who can best arbitrate between Imperialism and revolution, who will at least hesitate in making a choice between Napoleon and Rochefort. It is reported the Emperor in giving commands to prepare his speech for the opening of the Chambers, said: I desire the widest and most absolute affirmation of liberty.

DUBLIN, Nov. 26.—It is said that the government intends to send strong reinforcements to Ireland.

Mr. Luby is a candidate for Parliament from Queens county.

A Fenian candidate will probably come forward for Mallow, in the county of Cork.

MADRID, Nov. 26.—A manifesto has been issued by the Republican deputies of the Cortes, accusing the Provisional Government of having provoked the late revolutionary movement. It announces, however, that the deputies will resume their seats in the Cortes, to defend the rights of the people and strive to establish a federal republic, through which alone can the union of Spain and Portugal and the preservation of the colonies be effected.

PARIS, November 26.—Troops have been dispatched to Alby in the Department of Tarn, to quell a disturbance reported there.

There was a reunion of prominent members of the Thiers party this forenoon, to discuss the proposition of interpellation. A resolution blaming the ministry was adopted. Electoral meetings recommence here to-day.

After the reading of the minutes this morning in English standing committees were appointed by the President, to which all papers to the Synod were referred.

In the afternoon session the report of the treasurer of the synod, and other papers, were referred.

The Committee on Religious Services offered a report, which was amended and adopted.

Appointments were made for filling the pulpits of all Reformed churches, and others who had made requests, for next Sunday.

An election was had for the place of meeting for the next General Synod. Cincinnati and Fort Wayne were put in nomination. The First Church of Cincinnati was chosen as the place, and the first Wednesday preceding the first Sunday in Advent, in 1872, the time.

NEW YORK, November 16.—An Havana letter states: The Captain General has been very low spirited since his return from an inspection tour to Cienfuegos.

Twenty estates were recently burned near Cienfuegos, and the Spanish garrison there dare not leave to attack the Cubans in the vicinity. Fires are raging throughout the island.

The Captian General has telegraphed his family who were about leaving Spain for Havana, to remain at home.

One of the Cuban Junta states that the paragraph from Washington, on Wednesday night is false. Jordan was promoted to Chief of the Staff. The Cubans esteem Jordan very highly, and have every confidence in him. Is is not true that the Junta deserted the crew of the steamer Lillian. On the contrary, they have paid seven thousand dollars in gold for their maintenance and transportation to safe quarters.

Further About the Spanish Gunboats—Death of a Rich Miser—Preparing Vessels for Sea—Nothing New from the Seat of the Erie War—New Shuffle and New Deal—Suit by the Erie Railroad Company Against the Buffalo, Bradford & Pittsburgh Railroad, et al.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 26, 1869.

District Attorney Pierpont has been notified that a motion will be made early next week in relation to the release of the Spanish gunboats. It is not certain whether the motion will be to bond or for absolute release on the ground of illegal detention, nor whether made on behalf of Delamater or the Spanish government, or both jointly.

A large force of mechanics are at work at the navy yard on the Colorado, Tennessee, Susquehanna, Yantic, Canandaigua, and other vessels, getting them ready for sea.

An old man named Lyman Allen was found dead in his bed at Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, yesterday morning. He was a merchant worth $60,000, who has lived there for five years in a miserly manner. He took but one meal daily, and his wardrobe at his death was valued at twenty-five cents. His friends in Newtown, Conn., get the money.

No new move to-day in the latest phase of the Erie war. The outer doors of the Opera Building, wherein are the Erie offices, are guarded and entrance denied to all not having the proper pass word.

It is stated that suit has been instituted by the Erie Railroad Company against the Buffalo, Bradford & Pittsburgh Railroad, Dudley S. Gregory, Daniel Drew and others, for two hundred thousand dollars loss sustained by plaintiff, as alleged, in consequence of the leasing, by the Erie Railway Company, of the Buffalo, Bradford & Pittsburgh road, which, it is claimed, was effected by means of fraud. The plaintiff also seeks to have the contract cancelled. Complaint was served late this evening.

The shooting of Albert D. Richardson by Daniel McFarland has been the topic of conversation and comment to-day. The ball has not yet been extracted, but Mr. Richardson is much easier, and no symptoms of inflammation having appeared, his chances for recovery are favorable. The Coroner took his ante mortem statement to-day. McFarland has been committed to prison to await the result.

ST. LOUIS.

Unmanly Treatment of a Young Woman by a Pennsylvanian—Heavy Lawsuit—Allen's Reply to McCoole, &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 26.—A man named Charles Johnson, from Pennsylvania, brought a young woman here from Rolla, Missouri, last night, and after a mock marriage on the train and a night spent at a hotel, deserted her to-day, robbing her of over one hundred dollars and a gold watch. Johnson is supposed to have gone east.

The Inspector of Buildings, aided by eleven practical and prominent citizens, thoroughly examined to-day the standing portion of the building, part of which fell with such terrible results a week ago to-day, report to the Mayor that it is substantially built and safe. They recommend, however, that additional columns be put under one of the walls in which are four fire proof safes.

An ejectment suit, in which John J. Cutley and Haskell & Co., bankers, of this city, and T. M. Walker, of Pennsylvania, were plaintiffs, and the Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Co., defendants, to recover possession of coal miners on the above road, in the Circuit Court at Belleville, Ills., was decided in favor of plaintiffs. The amount involved is about two hundred thousand dollars.

Tom Allen replies to McCoole's challenge by saying he has fought and whipped him twice, been cheated out of the money each time, and don't propose to fight for nothing any more. He will fight him, however, for five hundred or a thousand dollars a side in ten days, within fifty miles of Cincinnati, the winner to take the stakes and excursion money. If this proposition is not accepted, he will fight any man in the United States for any amount of money, within fifty miles of Cincinnati, or in Canada, fifty miles from Detroit. He will not fight any one within three hundred miles of St. Louis. Allen denies that McCoole is, or ever was, champion. He also charges McCoole with withdrawing his portion of the stake money in the match unknown to him (Allen) when it was specially agreed between them that they should meet at a specified place here and make another match before either took a cent.

The weather is mild and wet.

Shooting Affray—Sugar Frauds—A Test Case Decided in Favor of the Government.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW ORLEANS, November 26.—Mr. Pinor shot and dangerously wounded August Martin, at the residence of the former, last night. The shooting was caused by family difficulties.

The first of the ten alleged Contourie sugar fraud cases, involving nearly $1,000,000 in gold, was disposed of to-day in the United States Court, before Judge Durrell. The amount in question in this particular case was four hundred and eighty hogsheads and forty-six tierces of sugar, on which the Government proved a deficiency on the invoiced weight of over eighty six thousand pounds, implying a fraud on the revenue of $2,600 in gold. The jury returned a verdict for the Government, condemning the whole of the sugar.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

RALEIGH, November 26.—The House, in Committee of the Whole, commenced investigating the alleged railroad frauds to-day. The treasurer was examined and testified that he has issued all the bonds to the railroad corporations. Other witnesses were examined. There was considerable excitement over the investigation.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE small pox prevails in New Orleans, and the disease has assumed almost an epidemic form.

A MINNESOTA debating society has resolved that the "office of Vice President of the United States is unnecessary and dangerous."

PROF. LOOMIS, of Yale College, thinks the central liquid parts of our earth (which are intensely hot,) render it a very unsafe place to stay on.

STEAMERS are building in England adapted to the navigation of the Suez Canal, in which it is proposed to bring large cargoes of cotton from India to Liverpool in thirty days, at a low rate of freight.

PROMONTORY has been thoroughly renovated of all thieves, gamblers and confidence men by a vigilance committee, and passengers now pass east and west over the Pacific Railroad without being robbed.

GALENA, Ill., is bankrupt, and its mayor and aldermen are under arrest for contempt of the United States District Court, in not levying taxes—which couldn't be raised—to pay certain judgments—which cannot be met.

A WILL case in Brooklyn has brought out a confession charging a number of persons, including the confessor, with forging a will bequeathing property, valued at $20,000, to the wife of one of the forgers, and giving one dollar to the daughter of the testator.

SEVENTY THREE years ago the town of Franklin, Conn., "voted to hire a man to instruct the school for four months, at $8 per month, finding his own board, to keep six days in a week, and 26 days for a month, and that no partiality be used on the part of the master."

A WISCONSIN paper gives an account of the capture in Northern Montana of "an animal of a species wholly unknown to naturalists, which is claimed by some to be a relic of the mastodon." This marvellous creature is only two years old, but stands seven feet high.

THE failures in the grain trade in Liverpool excite much attention in New York, and it is feared that they may result in a further depression of breadstuffs, both here and in the west. The effect of the opening of the Suez Canal upon the cotton trade is awaited with some anxiety.

By a deed filled for record in the Recorder's office at Cleveland, recently, Maggie Mahon conveys to John Stanton the undivided half of a certain lot, "in consideration of the payment by the said John Stanton of five dollars and his marriage to the grantor this day immediately after this deed is made."

THE "baby" elephant at New York Central Park was last Saturday to have had its photograph taken. But he became obstreperous at the idea of having his countenance exposed to the public gaze, and ran away. There was a chase, lasting almost all day, and finaly the infant was overhauled by a lasso.

THERE is great competition at Chicago between the telegraph companies. The Western Union has reduced its rate for ten words to New York from $2 10 to $1, night messages half that rate, and to other places in the same proportion. The Pacific and Atlantic announces a second reduction to the same rates.

IN New York, Monday night, a woman tried to kill herself. She rushed into the street with a bottle of gin and a knife, and leaning against a lamp post, she drank the contents of the bottle; then turning arround she wetted the knife on the post, and drew it across her throat. She was arrested before killing herself.

IT is learned that an arrangement has been entered into in New York, with gentlemen of the highest financial standing, for funds with which to complete the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad to the West. The papers have been signed, sealed and delivered. Every arrangement will soon be made to construct this great national thoroughfare.

WELL posted parties think Grant will recommend the immediate admission of Virginia in his message, but have doubts concerning his views on the admission of Mississippi and Texas during the present session. It is known that a formidable army influence is opposed to the admission of Texas during the present session, on account of alleged lawlessness in that State.

THE convention question is exciting a good deal of attention throughout Tennessee. It is well understood that there is an undercurrent of feeling on two points, especially repudiation of the State debt and negro suffrage. It is asserted that Andrew Johnson, who will be a delegate, will represent the repudiation and anti-negro suffrage ideas, and that he will press them on the attention of the convention.

THE President has announced himself, within the past three days, to a Senator, as absolutely opposed to the contemplated Reciprocity Treaty with Canada. So firm and decided is his opposition, that he declined to have any consultation on the subject with Mr. Rose, and has again and again refused to consider the subject. This statement is deemed necessary on account of the reassertion to the contrary in numerous papers.

THE Government of the United States of Colombia will, it is understood, renew its efforts to have the Darien Ship Canal Treaty ratified. The successful opening of the Suez Canal, it is believed, will operate to induce the Colombian Senate, which rejected the treaty last winter, to reverse its action. It can reconsider its vote and ratify the treaty at any time prior to September, 1870. President Grant is an earnest advocate of the Darien Ship Canal.

ONE W. P. Stimer got married a short time since, at New York, and in the height of this happiness got on a glorious spree. While in this pleasant state, a United States recruiting officer induced him to join the army. His bride got out a habeas corpus at once, and the officer consenting that Stimer should leave the service provided he refunded the money and clothing given him when he enlisted, and the wife having made the restitution required, the bridegroom was allowed to go on his way rejoicing.

—A CITIZEN of Columbus, Ohio, Thomas Burbank, was released from the Longview Lunatic Asylum, in October last, being represented as cured of his malady. But a few days since he resumed his insane freaks, and mapping out his house assigned one part to his wife, another to his son, and the other to himself, ordering each to keep within the bounds of his or her territory, or farm, as he termed it. His wife stepping across the line she was assailed furiously by him and threatened with her life. The unfortunate was returned to the asylum.

IT has leaked out that Senator Sherman's bill, to be laid before the Senate at the earliest day, will be to the following effect: Congress is to authorize a currency loan for two hundred million dollars, principal and interest to be paid in the currency of the country. The proceeds of this loan are to be cancelled, and thus we shall get rid of an irredeemable currency for consolidated bonds. Of course the operation is contraction of the highest kind; nor has it appeared how the Senator is going to fill the gap thus created by cancelling two hundred million greenbacks at once.

THE State Department has not received any information from Minister Motley to the effect that he has reopened negotiations with Great Britain relative to the Alabama claims. It is probable that the matter will be allowed to rest for some time to come unless Congress interferes. In the meantime Mr. Motley will continue his efforts in the negotiation of the consular and naturalization treaties. The latter is already completed, but until the British statutes are changed it cannot go into effect, as the feeling of bitterness against the Fenians has thus far acted as an effective obstacle against the necessary amendments.

THE latest reliable information from Cuba concerning the insurgents shows a decline in their caurse, and that they are now in possession of not a single town, having been obliged even to abandon Guaimoro, the seat of the Cespedes Government. There is now no doubt that several months ago General Jordan proposed to surrender to the Spanish authorities, not on his own account, but on that of his men from the United States, who were, he said, forced to take the front of battle on all occasions of combat. In consequence of this comparatively few of the American soldiers survive. But the Cubans prevented the consummation of General Jordan's object. General Jordan was, therefore, unable to leave the country, and was transferred to the staff of Cespedes.

SPEAKER BLAINE, of the House of Representatives, in a letter written on the subject of a reciprocity treaty with Canada, says that Secretary Fish has no idea of negotiating such a treaty, and after opposing such a scheme himself, he concludes by saying that the former reciprocity treaty, which terminated in 1865, cost Maine many millions of dollars, and a new treaty would prove still more injurious in a similar period of time. If the British provinces desire the advantage of our markets, let them seek it through the easily opened door of annexation. But so long as they remain a foreign dominion their inhabitants must pay, through our customs, at least duties enough to equalize their burden with that which is placed on our people through the medium of the Internal Revenue.

PERSONAL.

THE small pox is prevailing in New York city. There were eleven fatal cases reported last week.

DR. JOHN PORTER, of Troy, Missouri, predicted last summer that on the second Saturday of October he should die. He did.

REV. MR. BARROW, of Bedford Springs, Penna., has taken the vacant rectorship of the Episcopal Church in Evanston, Illinois.

THURLOW WEED, it is said, is about to resume his connection with journalism, by assuming editorial charge of the Albany (N. Y.) Journal.

DR. E. P. HUMPHREY, of Louisville, has decided to accept the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology in Danville Seminary, Kentucky.

A VERY interesting and talented young lady, Miss Nellie Mackay Hutchinson, was in attendance as a reporter at the Cleveland Woman Suffrage Convention, representing the New York Tribune.

THE meanest man has been found in Michigan. A laborer was buried by the caving in of a well on his premises, and he objected to any attempt at the rescue on account of the expense for a man who was dead.

A NEW YORK thief has returned the watch stolen from Hon. Hugh Hartings. The thief in a note to the Sun, says: "i seen this morning in the son that i stolen the wotch of mr hastings wich i regret not noin the man was a etitur, as i seen that horis greele had is wotch give back to im."

THE bogus Lord Ainsley has returned to New York, paid all his bills, and rented an elegant mansion on Madison square. It is whispered that a former admirer of Ainsley, a wealthy young banker, supplies the couple with money in large sums, and has partly succeeded in effecting a reconciliation between her ladyship and her relations. Ainsley is a London blackleg.

SCIENCE is discovering every day new methods to alleviate the sufferings of unfortunate mortals. The latest progress in this direction has been made by a Dr. Bernier in Paris, who is bleaching noses to which the treacherous influence of liquor has imparted a ruddy glow, by means of electricity. He has recently restored a lady of the highest rank to happiness, changing her nose, a blooming rose, into a delicate lily, and this case is causing great sensation in the scientific world. Dr. Bernier is having his method patented.

AN old judicial custom, starting from the dark ages, was done away with, last month, by an order of the Superior Court of the city of Hamburg, Germany. The civil court had sentenced a bankrupt and defaulting merchant to the additional and disgraceful punishment of the "Schandlauten," that is, having the bells of the court-house tolled while the sentence of the court, declaring him a fraudulent bankrupt, was being publicly proclaimed. The Supreme Court cancelled this part of the sentence, declaring it a relic of barbarous times, and not in consonance with free institutions.

THIRTY hundred and ninety-eight pounds of well dressed flesh, or thirteen members of the Fat Men's Association, met in New York city, Tuesday evening, to arrange matters for a ball to be given by them next month. They determined to appear in swallow tails, made with ample seams, which may be let out, as these delicate creatures pick up a little bit and grow fat. On that occasion they will disport their attenuated frames in the graceful movements of the mazy waltz, to appear to advantage in which Mr. Fisk, a little man of 360 pounds weight, is even now taking lessons in the terpsichorean art of De Garmo. A march and polka redowa have been composed for the occasion, peculiarly adapted to the elephantine saltatory gambolling of these good natured mountains of flesh.

A GENEALOGY of the family of Gen. Sherman is in preparation, and will be published, we are informed, in the January number of the Boston Genealogical Register. Gen. Sherman is a lineal descendant from Samuel Sherman, one of the noble band of founders of the colony of Connecticut, in 1635, at Wethersfield. It is a curious fact that our two most distinguished commanders, Grant and Sherman, are descended from pioneers at Windsor and Wethersfield, two of the most ancient towns in Connecticut. When the first Constitution of the infant settlement was adopted, in 1638, these towns, with Hartford, constituted the whole colony. The preamble to this Constitution reads: "We, the inhabitants and residents of Windsor, Hartford and Weathersfield, now cohabiting and dwelling in and upon the river of Conectecotte, doe enter into combination," &c.

GENERAL WOOL was interred in the Wool family plot at the beautiful Oakwood Cemetery, near Troy, where, a few years ago, the old veteran had buried his favorite war horse, Hector, with the hope, some day, of resting by his side. The aggrieved trustees, however, with no appreciation for the General's affection for the companion of his warrior glory, caused the carcass to be removed. One of the most sincere mourners at the General's funeral, out of the family circle, was a faithful old colored attendant, named James H. Davis, who had been with him forty years, and who through the General's illness could not be induced to leave his side, day or night. Mrs. Wool, who is eighty-two years old, was unable to attend the funeral on account of feeble health. General Wool was in his eighty sixth year, but had seen only twenty-two birth days, having been born February 29th.

A FRENCH paper gives an account of the signing of the contract between M. Victor Hugo and M. Lacroix, for the publication of "L'Humme Qui Rit." "Messrs. Hugo and Lacroix began by breakfasting together. At the desert, M. Lacroix drew out his contract and $20,000. M. Hugo counted the money, read the contract, dipped his pen in the ink, and wrote the first letter of his name. He suddenly stopped and said: 'Ah! I beg your pardon, my dear sir; I forgot to ask you——.' M. Lacroix became very pale. He had hard work and several days' battle to get his partners to agree to pay $20,000 a volume for the forthcoming work; what could M. Hugo ask now? M. Hugo said, 'Do not be alarmed; I refer to a mere trifle. My two sons have each a volume ready for the press; you will take and publish them; it is a bargain. They will only ask you $800 apiece for them.' What could M. Lacroix do? The knife was pointed at his heart. He said, 'I take them.' M. Victor Hugo took up the pen again, but hesitated, and said, pointing to the bank notes on the table: 'A thousand pardons. We have there only $20,000; we ought to have $21,600.' M. Lacroix was obliged to go for the $1,600 before M. Hugo would sign the contract."

PETROLEUM ITEMS.

The Titusville Herald of Friday has the following petroleum news:

Within the last week the well owned by E. M. Hidden, on the north side of the river at Parker's Landing, and another well owned by J. L. McKinney and others, on the south side of the river and about fifty rods back from it, have been completed and are now being tested. The indications are that each of them will produce fifteen to twenty barrels daily.

An old well on Bell Island, Scrubgrass, was recently cleaned out and started up, and is producing largely. It is owned by Mr. C. D. Angell.

A new twelve barrel well was struck on the Hart tract, Cherrytree Run, a few days ago. It is owned by Mr. Chas. Hart.

The production of three or four of the wells on the Fast Foster farm, which increased largely week before last, has decreased materially within the last three or four days. The other wells continue to produce at the increased rate.

About ten days ago, a new twelve barrel well was struck on the Niagara Oil Company's tract, Cherrytree Run, and about four days later, on the same Company's tract, another well was struck which is producing fifty barrels daily.

A new ten barrel well was struck on the Hess Farm, Cherrytree Run, last week.

On the Emery tract, (formerly the Walter Scott tract), Upper Cherry Run, a new sixty barrel well was struck on Monday. It is owned principally by Emery Bros.

The production of the Buchanan and Smith Farms and of Moody Run, Lower Cherry Run, has decreased slightly since the 1st inst.

On Wednesday evening, about six o'clock, four loaded oil cars and their contents burned at Walnut Bend on the Oil Creek and Allegheny River Railway.

A Tank, and about twenty five barrels of oil, situated at Rouseville and owned by Messrs. Campbell and Vanderville, were destroyed by fire Thursday morning.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Allegheny County.

SATURDAY, NOV. 27, 1869.

THE bark Wirralite arrived, on the 23rd, at Cleveland, direct from Liverpool, with an assorted cargo. Two other vessels of the same line will arrive in the Spring. Our enlarged canal to the Lake, if we ever have one, would equally give to Pittsburgh a direct foreign trade.

THE LAW OF MURDER.—The Supreme Court of Indiana, on Monday last, made a decision in a case which come before them on appeal, that no mere words, however slanderous, can rebut the presumption of malice, and reduce the crime of killing from murder to manslaughter. This is but an iteration of the old legal doctrines.

THE Christian Advocate, the Methodist Episcopal organ in this section, has donned a new and handsome dress, which very materially improves its appearance. Dr. S. H. NESBIT, the senior editor of the Advocate, wields a trenchant pen, and together with his assistant, Rev. E. A. JOHNSON, an easy and versatile writer, gets up one of the best of religious journals. We are glad to notice this evidence of the prosperity of our cotemporary, and hope that its excellence and influence may never be diminished.

A NAVAL COMMANDER, convicted by a court martial for cruelty to his men, has been deprived of his command, furlough and pay, losing all rank, for the next four years. Undoubtedly a righteous judgment, and a few more like it might prove occasionally of profit to the service. Naval discipline is quite harsh enough, without needing to have its severities refined and enhanced by the devilish cunning of educated intellects. Jack can always be made a good seaman without the need for turning our beautiful frigates into so many "hells afloat."

FOR WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Just at this moment, when the insurgent movement in Cuba has been driven to its last extremity, the rumors multiply that our own Government stands in danger of being deluded into overt acts of sympathy, indeed of direct aid to that desperate cause.

If these rumors are to be credited, a war with Spain will be the inevitable consequence.

Our own claims, upon England, for the vast sum which represents the injuries inflicted upon our material interests by her illegal and unfriendly sympathy with our Southern rebels, would be stripped at once of all their moral force, and could never be effectively revived.

Our immense public debt would be again swelled, and the day for its final liquidation would be postponed for generations to come.

The era of irredeemable paper-money, of financial embarrassment, and of a general national distress, would be indefinitely prolonged.

We should have more taxes instead of less, and the popular ability to meet them would be diminished in the inverse ratio to our growing burthens.

The good name which now honors the Great Republic throughout the world would be stained with a blot of international disgrace which would disfigure our history to all future time.

And all this, merely to precipitate, by a few years, an acquisation which the natural course of events is certain to mature in, irresistibly, honorably and peacefully, in due time, if left entirely alone.

We prefer to discredit these rumors, for neither the Executive nor Congress can be so blind as to shut their eyes to these results.

It should be clearly understood, in every official quarter, that whatsoever act of State, in the domestic or the foreign policy of our Government, shall have the effect to interrupt or to reverse the present peaceful, honorable and prosperous course of this country, in all its material and political relations, at home and abroad, that act will not be acceptable to the people, and the rulers or the party justly responsible therefor will find that they have irrecoverably sealed their own official death-warrant.

The people will have this great debt paid without needless delays; they will have the taxes reduced at the earliest possible day; they will insist that the present situation shall be let entirely alone; they will have peace at home and abroad; they will not have that peace broken under any hollow plea of republican sympathies for liberty elsewhere, or under any shameful temptation to territorial aggrandizement at the expense of any unwilling people on the earth; they will have it better understood that the day, when such temptations were potent for any risk or cost to them, has gone by, with no possible revival during this century; they will have their government administered for the true interests of these thirty-seven States; and they will call delinquent servants, be they whom they may, to a quick and sharp account. Nor would the magic of a great man, of parties, or of individuals, have the weight of a straw to avert that just retribution.

RAILWAYS AND CANALS.

As population, wealth and science advance, the necessity for carrying heavy commodities from place to place increases; and this carrying is one of the truest indexes of civilization. Savages carry only what they can pack on the backs of their wives or their ponies, for they have no commerce; barbarians carry but little, and that by the rudest and most primitive means; but as men rise in the scale of advancement, and artificial wants multiply—but it is an error to call them artificial—the necessity for the conveyance of the things that supply those wants presses upon us, and the inventive genius of men is called into play to meet that necessity.

We have said parenthetically that it is wrong to call those wants artificial which prompt man to labor and struggle for the things which lift him higher and higher above the lower animals, which invest him with power, develope his intellectual and moral nature, and surround him with comforts and things of beauty. These are natural wants; for it is as much his nature to rise as it is for an ox to drink water or crop the herbage. His Creator made him so, and what He makes is natural. The savage is not a natural man, but an abortion. The animal nature, which is his lower and meaner part, is alone developed, and that only as a distorted monster. It is the inherent, natural divinity working within him that prompts man to put forth his higher powers to the achievement of anything that is calculated to raise him higher and make him happier. But this is not the subject we propose to discuss at present.

Men who are not very old remember the time when there were no railroads, and when canals were all the rage—when DE WITT CLINTON fought his great battle for a canal from the Hudson to Lake Erie and won it; and when Pennsylvania, with perhaps more zeal than wisdom, undertook to link the Delaware and the Ohio together by a similar work. The first, because the ground was suitable for such a work, was a great success; the other, because the ground was unsuitable, was a failure. Perhaps we ought not to say it was a failure, for it was of incalculable benefit to the State as a channel of commerce; but it was not a financial success.

Then they will remember the introduction of railroads. How they were gone into cautiously at first as good substitutes for canals where there was no supply of water. How, in a very few years, their capabilities as carriers were found to be such that the little old canals were unable to compete with them. That brings us up to the present era.

But is that the end? Are railroads to do all the carrying needed in our vast and ever-increasing internal commerce? We think not; but that we are on the eve of another revolution.

That the use of railroads will continue as long as the world stands we firmly believe, and that they will be multiplied till they become as common all over the country as ordinary wagon roads are now, we also believe; but at the same time we believe that the necessity of carrying enormous masses of ponderous articles, such as coal and ores, and even agricultural products, from far distant localities will, by and by, be such as to compel a return to water transportation. The minimum limits at which railroads can transport has been already reached; but that is not true of the other mode of transportation.

When so many canals were made some forty years ago, they were adapted to boats carrying thirty or forty tons each; but when the next canal and slackwater era opens, the boats will be of ten times that tonnage. This will reduce the cost of transportation to figures greatly below what railroads can carry for without loss. Forty years ago the country was comparatively poor and sparsely populated and the little canals of that day were well adapted to the wants of commerce; but now a very different system is both necessary and feasible. Then a canal was made from the Ohio river at Beaver to the harbor of Erie, to be navigated by boats of 30 to 40 tons. Now it is proposed to enlarge that canal so as to admit of the passage of vessels of 300 to 400 tons—vessels that can navigate the lakes, and thus virtually extend that navigation to the head of Lake Superior, to Chicago, and to the great iron and copper deposits of the Lake Superior country. It is a magnificent project, and one that high engineering authority has pronounced perfectly feasible, and it is a work that is more needed than the present little canal was in 1839.

Next we shall have a slackwater on the Kanawha of equal capacity; and so the work will go on, until the Ohio itself shall be made a great trunk slackwater navigation into which a floating commerce of vast amount will be poured from all its principal tributaries.

Meantime the railroads, relieved of their crushing burdens, will flourish more than ever; for the country will prosper by a return to water transportation as it never did before. It will be the aim of those who open these new channels to make them reach as far as possible, so that the same vessel may carry the same cargo, if need be, from one extremity of the country to the other. Look, for example, what an extent of navigation the enlarged canal from Beaver to Erie (a little more than 100 miles) will open. When that shall be accomplished a lake propellor may take in a cargo of Minnesota wheat at the head of Lake Superior, or of iron ore, or copper, bring it to Pittsburgh, then go up the Monongahela, take in a cargo of coal, or, if more advantageous, it can take in a cargo of Pittsburgh manufactures, and return to the place of starting. Can anybody calculate the results and the benefits of such a commerce as that?

THE PERU-CUBAN IMBROGLIO.

As we yesterday suggested, the New York World insists, very unjustly, that the current legal proceedings, in the matter of the Spanish gunboats, are resorted to, by the Administration, as a subterfuge to cloak the official friendship for the cause of the Cuban revolt. Taking the World's stand point, its view would fully justify the following language:

> If we are to have a war with Spain in behalf the Cuban insurgents, let us not degrade ourselves by sneaking into it under transparent subterfuges. If our government has determined that Cuba shall be independent, or that it shall be annexed to this country, let it make a manful avowal of its purposes and proceed boldly to their execution. It does not comport with the dignity of a great nation to descend to tricks and chicanery, or to act upon motives which it dares not avow. If Spain has a legal right to take these gunboats to Cuba, the Administration should oppose no obstacle to their departure. If we are willing to risk a war with Spain in behalf of the insurgents, these boats will be but as dust in the balance. They cannot obstruct our conquest of the island, if our government decides that it shall be wrested from Spain.
> We suppose no lawyer has any doubt that, under the law as it stands, these vessels will be released as soon as the question is brought before a court; but the fact that the hearing is set down for the 14th of December, a week after the meeting of Congress, may indicate an intention to take the sense of that body, and perhaps procure a change in the law before the case is adjudicated. But if Congress intervenes to thwart the release of the boats, it is war!

The annexed paragraphs from the Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune, may throw some light upon the signs of the times, in this connection:

> In a few days Congress will be in session. A considerable number of Senators and Representatives have already arrived in Washington. With several of these the President has been in consultation, and there is no doubt that he will be supported in the declaration of a thoroughly American policy on the Cuban question. Senator Morton and other leading men would go much further in the support of the Cuban Republicans than the President desires to go, while many prominent members of the House are fully up with Senator Morton. Secretary Fish has been charged with a want of liberality toward the Cuban Republicans, but those who bring this accusation may not be aware of the policy he has really been pursuing, some indication of which may be found in his removal of Mr. Plumb from the Havana consulate. It was reported in the inner circles of diplomacy, a short time ago, that the proclamation recognizing the belligerent rights of the Cubans had been actually drawn up for several months; that the form was filled in at the earnest desire of Secretary Rawlins before his death, and that he besought Grant to promise that it would be issued as soon as possible.

THE Report of the Commissioner of Customs for the fiscal year, ending September 30, gives the total receipts for customs, $181,300,000. Of which there was in gold, $175,000,000, which is equivalent in currency to $234,000,000. The expenses of collection were $4,000,000; the fines, penalties and forfeitures, $700,000. Last year they were only $400,000.

GEO. WILKES, of the Spirit of the Times, who has just returned from Europe, expresses the conviction that the Emperor Napoleon, as well as Victor Emmanuel, will both be in their coffins within six months, and that nothing can prevent another revolutionary upheaval all through Europe, in the course of the next summer.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

November is a month of peculiar interest in Methodistic circles, because the anniversaries of the different Church Societies take place. The results of the out going year are then reviewed, and plans are adopted for the in-coming year. The first days of the month were observed as the anniversary of the Sunday School Union, at Columbus, Ohio. Several days afterwards the Freedmen's Aid Society celebrated its anniversary at Cincinnati, Ohio, of which brief reference has already been made. Thanksgiving-day the Fourth Annual meeting of the Church Extension Society, commenced its sessions in Philadelphia, and closed Monday evening last. Seven Bishops were present, besides the General Conference Committee from different parts of the work, and other ministers, and also a number of prominent laymen. The actual results of last year's labor are as follow: About sixty thousand dollars disbursed, aiding sixty five churches in twenty three different States and Territories; aided by loans fourteen churches in eight different States and Territories; additional subscriptions and pledges to the Loan Fund of the Society have been secured to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, and additional cash to the amount of ten thousand dollars. The Missionary Society celebrated its Fifty first anniversary, at New York, beginning Thursday 11th and closing Monday evening, 15th. It was an occasion of rare interest, and is always, however, an important time, in view of the weighty interests involved. The Tract Society will hold its annual meeting at Cleveland, Ohio, commencing to-morrow and closing Monday night. The importance of the Missionary Society's operations are worthy of being reproduced in a condensed form. Notwithstanding the grave fears felt several months ago by the Board, that the Society would close the year in debt, the liberal collections in the Conferences recently held were found to be sufficiently large to furnish the means of meeting all the claims against the Society, and left a balance in the treasury of something over four thousand dollars. During a greater part of the year, however, a debt of about one hundred thousand dollars had been carried, until relief came in the closing weeks of the fiscal year. After careful consideration of all things, the Board has assumed that the Church will raise more money the coming year than the past. The round sum of eight hundred thousand dollars is wanted to carry forward the grand work in hand this year.

The Triennial session of the General Synod of the German Reformed Church, commenced in Christ Church, Philadelphia, on Wednesday evening last. Rev. Dr. Gernard, of the Theological Seminary, at Mercersburgh, Pa., was elected President. Nearly two hundred delegates from thirty-one Classis are present, besides a large number of advisory members and visitors. The meeting will be one of vital interest to the Church, as questions will come up for discussion and decision that will have an important bearing upon its future operations.

The anniversary of the Protestant Episcopal Evangelical Knowledge Society, at Philadelphia, some days ago, was an occasion of much interest. The annual report of the Executive Committee shows the total receipts for the year amount to $51,688 90, including a small balance on hand. Of this sum $49,443 65 has been expended, leaving a balance of $1,249 25. The property of the Society, stock, cuts, plates, &c., are valued at $62,309 11, which with legacies and bonds, make a general aggregate of $82,009 11. The Executive Committee for the ensuing year consists of such ministers as Drs. Schenck, Tyng, Vinton, Cotton Smith, and several laymen.

Dr. John Hall, of New York, who delivered an address of so much intent at the late anniversary of our Christian Association, after his return from a European tour, says: All the people of Wales go to the Sunday school, stay in it, study the Bible in it, die in it, and go to heaven from it.

Rev. O. B. Frothingham, one of the leading Unitarian ministers of this country, represents God as a Universalist, and as having two methods of saving the world. With one hand He invites, and with the other compels.

The New York correspondent of the Presbyterian, speaking of the centenary of the Universalists, in contrast to the late "centenary" of Methodism, says that while the latter are "furnishing multitudes of faithful preachers and devoted Christians," the former are "continuing to stupefy the consciences of condemned sinners, by the lying message, 'Thou shalt not surely die!'"

The Baptists are quite strong in Richmond, Va. There are six white Baptist churches, with a membership of nearly three thousand, and seven colored churches with over eight thousand members. Total in the thirteen churches, ten thousand nine hundred and ninety-five—in a population of about fifty thousand.

Five Methodist Protestant churches were dedicated on a recent Sabbath—four in Maryland and one in Virginia.

The Advance sometimes furnishes choice bits. It seems to think that to locate a theological seminary in Chicago is to secure a large infusion of common sense, and by way of illustration of this fact, says that students will play base ball undisturbed by the idea that the devil has largely appropriated the game within a few years, by connecting with it betting and drinking. It also says a singular match game came off lately between the students in the Congregational and the Old School Presbyterian Seminaries, or as it was wittily styled, between the free moral agents and the original sinners! The muscle and speed seem to have been too much for the free moral agents, for they won the game. It says: We trembled for the result, knowing how great is the power of original sin! A second match, played since, however, was won by the original sinners!

An alarm of fire was cried in the Congress street Methodist Episcopal Church in Troy, New York, on a recent Sunday, which caused great consternation, when some one struck up a familiar tune. All soon joined and quiet was restored—the fire was put out and the people got over the scare.

A correspondent of Zion's Herald, Boston, gave quite an interesting interview he once had with Ex-President Pierce, relative to his having left public life previous to his election to the Presidency to become a Methodist preacher. Rev. Mr. Prime, of the New York Observer, rather confirms that statement, and shows how he was affected toward preaching. During one of the reception days at the White House, he remarked to Mr. Prime: "After all, the man who preaches the Gospel and wins men to heaven has the highest office on earth."

A colored class leader of Sharp street M. E. Church, Baltimore, died recently while leading his class. He had led one-half of his class, and while singing, "And must I be to judgment brought," etc., fell on the floor and expired.

The statistics of the Methodist Episcopal Church are just out for the year, and show the following facts: Total preachers, traveling and local, 18,370; total lay members, 1,255,115; value of churches and parsonages, $47,570,501; number of Sunday school teachers, 181,666, and scholars taught, 1,145,168.

The new Cathedral now being built in Brooklyn, New York, will cost two millions of dollars, and seat fifteen thousand people.

The Universe, a Catholic paper, says that two hundred thousand Irish children are lost to the Catholic faith in this country every year. This result is attributed principally to the influence of the Sunday schools.

A Methodist minister, named Cowden, at Troy, Ohio, was charged by a man with having been drunk at a given time, on his way from Cincinnati to Troy. Notwithstanding the charge was proved false, it was reiterated by the man. The congregation then entered suit for slander, and a verdict has just been rendered for the plaintiff of two thousand dollars.

The number of conversions among the Sunday School scholars of the Methodist Episcopal Church last year was forty one thousand seven hundred and three.

STATE ITEMS.

THE trial of Gus. Schell for the murder of David Tate was commenced at Franklin on the 24th.

TYRONE, Blair county, is having water pipes laid in its streets, to furnish citizens with clear soft water.

No new developments have transpired in the Peightal murder case, at Huntingdon. The prisoners will be tried in January.

THE poultry in Dauphin county are dying in great numbers from a sort of epidemic which has broken out among them.

THE price of gas in Washington borough has been reduced from four dollars to three dollars and a half per thousand cubic feet.

THE Mayor of Philadelphia has decided to distribute his "detective" force throughout the city, in order that they may demonstrate more satisfactorily their efficiency.

ON Friday of last week, a little daughter (aged eight years) of Franklin McCormick, of Jordan township, Clearfield county, was fatally burned by her clothing accidentally taking fire.

A BARREL of oil was dipped off from the old McIntyre well, two miles north of Pittsfield, Warren county, last week—showing beyond a doubt, says a correspondent, the existence of the greasy fluid in the valley of the Brokenstraw.

ON the 17th, Deputy Sheriff Boyer, of Perry county, was attacked on the highway by two men, shot at and wounded in the hand, and then knocked from his horse and robbed of one hundred dollars. The robbers escaped to the mountains.

SIX hundred and sixteen persons pay income tax in the twenty-fourth Congressional District, two hundred and seventy eight in Washington county, one hundred and fifty seven in Beaver, one hundred and thirty five in Lawrence, and forty six in Greene.

LAST week, while out hunting, Hiram Woodward, of Clearfield county, was accidentally shot by his gun falling from its resting place against a log. The ball entered his arm at the wrist, passed out at the elbow and lodged in his body near the shoulder.

FURRY game seems to be as scarce as feathered game is abundant. Wild rabbits have disappeared from localities in which they last year swarmed. In the markets at about this time last year the animals could be bought for thirty cents apiece; this season very few are offered. The opossum is equally scarce.

A CAVE was recently discovered by a citizen of Mechanicsville, Mifflin county, while engaged in excavating for the foundation of a building. At the point of discovery the cave has a depth of ten feet, the highest part of it being three feet below the surface. It has been explored for some distance either way.

THE execution of Z. T. Hockenberry, the Butler county murderer, is fixed for Dec. 9th, an effort to induce the Governor to extend the time having, so far, failed. A clergyman has suggested to the Citizen that on the first Sunday in December Hockenberry be made the special subject of prayer in all the pulpits in Butler county.

THE present arrival of venison to the Philadelphia market is said to be little short of prodigious. From Potter, McKean and Tioga counties it comes in such quantities that the sausage stuffers are astounded at the abundance. Time was that Chicago was a pet market for Pennsylvania deer, but the Pacific Railroad now brings antelope meat into that city at a figure even less than the price of beef.

IN the tunnel being made by the Cambria Iron Co., near Mill Creek, one night last week, a premature blast went off. Ellis Wadsworth, a boy working in the tunnel, was severely injured, and a man who was working with him was so stunned by the discharge that he lay helpless for a considerable time, but on coming to sensibility he managed to carry the boy out of the tunnel to the nearest house, where medical aid was soon obtained.

BY a resolution passed at the last meeting of the Philadelphia Common Council, a committee was appointed to inquire why the Directors of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company had not declared any dividends to the stockholders out of the 30 per cent. of which they were in receipt from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, by whom their road is leased and run. A sub-committee has been appointed to obtain the desired information.

AT Titusville, a few days ago, E. F. Hallett, alias A. R. Davis, was arrested on a charge of selling or attempting to sell counterfeit United States currency, that is, offering to sell one hundred dollars of such currency, that would defy detection, for twenty dollars. Letters of the accused, making such offer, fell into the hands of honest men, and he was thus exposed. After a partial examination before U. S. Commissioner Seely, at Titusville, the case was adjourned to the 30th, for further hearing at Pittsburgh.

A LADY in Philadelphia has a large cat, which is quite a wonder. George (such is its name) will sit quietly by the piano when any person is performing, and at a particularly pleasing passage mew forth his approbation. Whenever the parlor is deserted and the piano open, he mounts the stool, and sitting on his haunches, pats the keys with his fore paws, resembling the attempts of a beginner. Tiring of this, he will run up and down the keyboard, apparently enjoying the greatest delight at the sounds he produces. Barnum should take him in hand and give him a musical education.

THE coroner's jury in the case of a man killed at the Lochiel Iron Works, at Harrisburg, a few days ago, found that the deceased "came to his death by a reckless indifference or inexcusable ignorance of the rights of humanity, by the employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in running the trains of cars under their charge at a fearful rate of speed within the city limits, and who, without any regard to human life or limb, declare it as their opinion, a matter of choice, and not of duty, either to their superiors, or the citizens of Harrisburg, what rate of speed shall govern them in entering or departing the above named city."

THE alleged murderers of the Peightal family, in Huntingdon county, refuse to disclose the place where the remainder of the money they obtained is concealed, and have told another story about the murder, implicating two other men, whom they met at McConnelstown and accompanied to Peightal's house. They say these men went into the house, and that after they came out the money was divided, when they separated, Bohner and Van Bordenburg going towards Huntingdon, and the others, one of them named Gorden, along the Broad Top Railroad. This story is entirely discredited. Several articles of clothing found in the possession of Bohner and Van Bordenburg, at Altoona, have been identified as the property of the murdered family.

THE congregation of St. George's Methodist Episcopal Church celebrated its one hundredth anniversary on Wednesday, the 24th. St. George's is the oldest church of its denomination in Philadelphia, and was among the first in the country. It has been served by a long line of some one hundred and twenty pastors, about twenty of whom are now living. Many names noted in connection with the history of Methodism in this country are among the number, and also many of the strongest preachers and bishops of the Church. The first meeting of Methodists held in Philadelphia, which was the nucleus from which the congregation sprung, was a class of seven persons collected by Captain Webb, an officer of the British army, who was also instrumental in introducing Methodism in Long Island and in building it up in New York.

THE following patents were issued to citizens of Western Pennsylvania, during the week ending November 25th, 1869:

Horse shoe machine, Wesley Anderson, Pittsburgh.

Welding iron and steel, John F. Beazel, Uniontown.

Machine for rolling bars for horse shoes, Abram Reese, McClure township, Allegheny county.

Horse shoe machine, Jacob and Abram Reese, Pittsburgh.

Loom, James L. Branson, Pittsburgh.

Lubricating compound, Cyrus S. Moore, Erie.

Re-issue—Belt-making machine, Wm. J. Lewis, Pittsburgh.

Coffin, Samuel Hillier, Allegheny.

ROCHEFORT will make no lasting impression upon Paris. Revolutions are not controlled by mountebanks, and this writer comes from that class of men which are represented here by Brick Pomeroy, George Francis Train and William C. Jewett. He has written brilliant libels—no more! Brick Pomeroy has done the same thing, and quite as forcibly. Rochefort's persecution has given him some prominence, and may lead to higher honors. He has insulted the Emperor,—and extreme Radicals may vote for him—as they would throw at the Imperial face the most offensive object within their reach. Lamartine was infinitely greater than Rochefort,—but he died away like a summer breeze twenty years ago. ROCHEFORT seems destined for a similar fate.—N. Y. Times.

WE LIVE IN THREE CLIMATES.

In this country we have at different seasons of the year, the temperature of three climates. Our Springs and Autumns have a softness and mildness that belong only to the Temperate Zone; our Mid-summers are torrid, and our Mid winters almost arctic in their frigidity. These changes, involving a variation of from ninety to one hundred degrees of Fahrenheit during the year, are upon the whole conducive to health and long life, but they tend to entail upon us some distressing complaints which can only be escaped by the exercise of due care and the use of a proper antidote when the system is [illegible] [illegible]. The chief and most annoying of these disorders is Dyspepsia, once supposed to be incurable, but which, since the introduction of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, now about twenty years ago, has proved to be a perfectly manageable disease. In the Spring and Fall it is more especially in [illegible] [illegible]. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] [illegible] eminent members of the medical profession.

SECURITIES.

No. 5 Nassau Street, N. Y.

NOVEMBER 8, 1869.

To our Customers and Correspondents.

The surprising development of our national resources and the rapidity with which the Government is now enabled to reduce the national debt, by weekly purchases, render it apparent that the time is approaching when the Five-Twenty bonds may be funded at not over four or four and a half per cent. interest.

Meanwhile their high price, as compared with other classes of securities, paying an equal rate of interest, is leading to general inquiry for more profitable forms of investment in which money may be safely invested.

During the war the necessities and peril of the Government, and the consequent cheapness of its securities, rendered them so attractive that from this cause, combined with the patriotic faith of the people in their safety, they absorbed almost the entire floating capital of the country, and diverted attention from other classes of securities which had been before deemed sufficiently conservative and sound to meet the wants of the most cautious investors.

The Government is no longer a borrower. It no longer needs the country's capital, but desires gratefully and honorably to repay it.

The rapid accumulation of capital for investment, and the reduction of the national debt and improvement of the national credit—rendering it certain that hereafter but a comparatively low rate of interest can be derived from investment in Government bonds—is compelling the search for other safe and well guarded channels into which capital not employed in business may wisely flow.

The enterprises of Peace, no less needful in their time and place, for the common welfare, than were the waste and cost of War, now call for the capital which the Government no longer needs, and offer for it a remuneration which the Government need no longer pay, and in some cases a security as stable and enduring as the nation itself.

The desire to capitalize the premium which may now be realized upon Five-Twenty bonds, and which a material decline in Gold toward par, and the ability of the Government to fund them at a lower rate of interest, may at any time extinguish, is held by many holders who desire some satisfactory assurance as to which of the many low priced securities in the market would afford the necessary safety to justify an exchange.

The applications for information and advice which are addressed to us daily, show how universal is the desire for this assurance, as to what forms of investment more profitable than Government securities at present market rates, are entitled to the confidence of the investors.

The pressure of this want has led us to feel the importance of directing our own attention as bankers, our large experience and our facilities for obtaining reliable information—to the work of supplying it in some measure, and to offer the results of our inquiries to those who may be disposed to confide in our good faith and judgment.

We are unwilling to offer to our friends and the public anything which, according to our best judgment is not as secure as the national obligations themselves, with which we have hitherto principally identified ourselves.

Since closing the GREAT CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD LOAN, which meets all these requirements, we have carefully examined many others, but have found no other which would fully do so, until the following was placed in our hands.

FIRST MORTGAGE

Six Per Cent. Gold Bonds

OF THE

WESTERN PACIFIC R. R. CO.

OF CALIFORNIA.

The Western Pacific Railroad connecting Sacramento with San Francisco, furnishes the final link in the extraordinary chain of an unbroken line of rail from the shore of the Atlantic to that of the Pacific.

It is 150 miles in length, including a short branch, and it will be the connecting its chief cities, and traversing the garden of the rich and growing State of California, receiving, in addition to an immense and lucrative local traffic, the through business over the Union and Central Pacific Railroads—between the Eastern States and Sacramento.

METROPOLITAN LINE

Of the Pacific Coast,

It is completed, fully equipped, and in successful operation, and its earnings in October, the first full month, amounted to $105,000 in coin. The net earnings will, by a moderate estimate, amount to $600,000 per annum, in coin, while the interest on its Bonds will be but $168,000.

The value of the property and franchises is not less than

Ten Millions of Dollars,

and the amount of the mortgage is $2,800,000.

The Bonds are $1,000 each, have thirty years to run, and will be sold at

Ninety, and Accrued Interest,

in currency. They are made payable, PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST, IN GOLD COIN, in the city of New York. Coupons due January and July 1st.

The near approach of the time when the United States can probably fund the greater portion of its Six per cent. debt, is naturally causing inquiry for other forms of investment, which will afford satisfactory security with the same rate of interest. THE WESTERN PACIFIC RAILROAD FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS must have an immense advantage over all other securities based upon merely local or uncompleted railroad, and may be held with as much confidence as Government bond, or as first-class mortgages on New York City property.

The loan is small in amount. Its claims to confidence are apparent. It will be rapidly taken; Bonds will be delivered as the orders are received.

Government Bonds received at their full market value in exchange.

FISK & HATCH.

BANKERS.

We buy and sell Government Bonds and receive the accounts of Banks, Bankers, Corporations and others, subject to check at sight, and allow interest on daily balances.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 26, 1869.

The most prominent feature of the financial department is the weakness and declining tendency of Government bonds, which were well sustained during the decline of gold yesterday, but to-day, after gold had touched 124⅛, the market broke, and 65s and 62s declined to 114¾, and 62s to 114 with a decided weak feeling for all issues except 10-40s. The large holders, the principal dealers and some of the bank and insurance companies have been free sellers and had it not been for the liberal purchases of the Government, bonds would have further declined to-day.

Gold is firmer at the decline, but it does not seem to have touched its lowest point yet for the present, and the tendency is for gradually lower quotations. Should the Government announce its policy on Monday in regard to purchases and sale of bonds for the month of December, for which liberal sales of gold are predited, the quotation of about 120 would soon be reached.

Stocks are high but not strong, and the market is kept up by cliques in order to sell the public all they can before a severe break in the stock market, which is sure to come, sets in.

Money easier for good borrowers, but business exceeds anything yet experienced in the way of dullness.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, November 26, 1869.

The money market is without any new feature. The demand on call was promptly met at 6@7 per cent. prime. Business rate was discounted to a moderate extent at 9@12 per cent. But all paper below prime only sells at irregular and high rates. Sterling firmer, at 8¾@9.

Gold opened at 124⅜, fell to 124¾, advanced to 124⅞, on the announcement that a number of war vessels had been ordered here pending the difficulties about Spanish gunboats; closed at 124⅛@124⅞. The clearances are the largest since the re-establishment of the Clearing House, over $20,000,000. Carrying rates 5@7 per cent.

The Sub-Treasurer sold $1,000,000 at 124 53-100@124 65-100.

Governments lower; dealers report large orders to sell bonds for country account, closing prices generally lowest of day; Coupons of 81, $1,17⅛@1,17¼; do 62, $1,14⅛@1,14¼; do 64, $1,12⅛@1,12¼; do 65, $1,12⅝@1,13; do new $1,14⅛@1,14¼; do 67, $1,14⅛@1,15; do 68, $1,14⅛@1,14¼; 10-40s $1,07⅛@1,07½. Currency sixes, $1,07⅛@1,07⅜.

State Bonds weak. Missouris, 91; old Tennessees, 56⅛; new do., 51⅛; old Virginias, 48; new do., 55; old North Carolinas, 49⅛; new do., 30. Special tax, 33.

The railway market during the afternoon presented some curious features. The bull movement in Northwestern common took a more decided shape and prices suddenly run up to 76. Rock Island followed in wake and advanced to 105⅛. These two stocks are supposed to work in harmony, and for a time the balance of the market was almost neglected. Reading, next strongest and firm, at 99⅛@99⅞ under some large purchases for account of New York, Boston and Philadelphia parties. The advance in Reading is supposed to be based on the prospect of a cash dividend instead of scrip. Late in the day there was a sudden break for Northwestern common to 74⅜, and Rock Island in sympathy fell to 104⅛. The change gave rise to rumors of a quarrel among the bull fraternity, and an unsettled feeling prevailed. New York roads and western shares, with the exception of Northwestern and Rock Island, were dull and heavy throughout the afternoon, with usually light business. The market finally recovered partially from the depression, and closed steady.

Five-Thirty Prices.—Caton, 52⅛; Cumberland, 26⅛; Western Union Telegraph, 35⅛; Quicksilver, 14; Mariposa, 7⅜; do preferred, 16; Adams Express, 57⅛; Wells & Fargo, 18; American, 35; United States, 52⅛; Pacific Mail, 52⅝; New York Central, 176, Erie 28; do preferred, 47; Harlem, 131⅝; Hudson, 155; Reading, 99⅛; Michigan Central, 120; Lake Shore, 88; Illinois Central, 136; Pittsburgh, 82⅜; North Western, 75⅛; do preferred, 88⅝; Rock Island, 104⅛; St. Paul, 68⅛; do. preferred, 83⅛; Wabash, 57; do preferred, 76; Fort Wayne, 87⅞; Terre Haute, 26; do. preferred, 57; Chicago and Alton, 149⅛; do. preferred, 148⅛; Ohio and Mississippi, 26; New York Central, consolidated, 89⅛; do. scrip, 79⅛; Burlington and Quincy, 152; St. Joseph, 107⅛; Marietta, first preferred, 20⅛.

Mining shares dull; Quartz Hill, 2; Smith and Parmlee, 178; Grass Valley, 20. Boston prices—Calumet, 54; Copper Falls, 4; Franklin, 8; Hecla, 80; Quincy, 20.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 26, 1869.

The situation in regard to oil, remains without material change, and the market is devoid of any new or important characteristics, none at least, worthy of special notice. Refined continues weak with a drooping tendency, and there seems to be little or no inquiry for Crude, excepting sellers option this year; all of these options offered are taken at market price, though it is said there are but two or three buyers, even for these. The uncertainty which prevails at present as well as the deep anxiety manifested in regard to the future, tends very much to cripple business, and those who are disposed to trade legitimately are deterred from so doing, in consequence of the unsettled and demoralized condition of the market.

CRUDE.

Sales in lots of 6,000 bbls seller option this year at 16½; and 3,000 seller first half of next year, at 14¾. Spot or November oil is held at 17, but there are very few of any buyers.

REFINED.

The market is quiet and weak, and November has still further declined. Sales 500 bbls November at 33½c and 1,000 and 500 for December at 34½. Subsequently December weakened considerably and at 4 P. M. it was rumored that it was offered at 34. As noted yesterday, most, if not all of the buyer options this year have been called, and allowing the usual 15 days, they will fall due on the 10 of next month.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 26, 1869.

The general markets are quiet but steady with a fair business in the aggregate, though, as has been the case for some time past, there is plenty of room for improvement. The demand for most of the leading commodities continues to be restricted to supplying immediate wants of the local trade, while in regard to values there are no material changes.

APPLES—Quiet, in good supply and unchanged—we can report regular sales at $2,50@3,50 per bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—Quoted at 85@90.

BUTTER—Is being sold at 30@33 for fair to good, 35 for prime and 36@37 for choice. Supply fully up to the demand.

BROOM CORN—Sales at 12@13 cts.

BEANS—Steady at $2,50@3.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Sales, 1½@4½ cts.

CHESTNUTS—Dull; $4,50@5.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted at $12@16 per bbl, as to quality and condition.

CARBON OIL—Firm but unchanged; standard brands may be quoted in a jobbing way at 31@31½.

CIDER—Sales all the way from $5 to $9 per bbl.

CHEESE—Is quoted from 17 to 18 for Western Reserve; 19 for Factory; 20 for Ohio and 21 for New York Goshen.

DRIED FRUIT—Demand is rather better, but prices are unchanged. Apples 7@8c. Peaches 9@10 for quarters, and 12@12½ for halves.

DRESSED HOGS—Sales at 12@13.

EGGS—Coming in more freely and prices are barely sustained, 37@38. There are not many buyers at these quotations.

FEATHERS—In better demand and higher, and we now quote at 85@90 to the trade and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is dull and neglected but unchanged. We continue to quote winter wheat flours at $5,75@6,25, and spring wheat brands at $5,50@5,75.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged at $1,15@1,18 for good to prime red. Oats still reported steady at 47 on track and 48@50 in store. Rye is unsettled and irregular; from all that we can learn they are but few cash buyers above 95—we understand that $1 can be realized by allowing time, and it is rumored that a large sale was made the other day at $1,03. Sales of new corn at 70@75 and old at 90@92. Barley is very dull and State cannot be quoted above $1@1,10—it is said that Canada barley can be laid down here at $1,15@1,20.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Diamond Scales at $14@22 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 3 cents per pound.

HOMINY—Sales at $6,00@6,50 per bbl.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland white lime at $2@2 25 per bbl.

ONIONS—Sales at $2,50@3,00 per bbl, the outside figure for choice.

LARD OIL—Also is firm and tending upward; No. 1 is now quoted at $1.45@1.48.

POTATOES—In fair demand with sales by the car load at 55, for prime Lake Shores.

PEANUTS—Sales at 10 cts.

PEAS—Dull; $2,50 per bushel.

SEEDS—Clover seed is quoted at $7@8, and considerable offering. Flaxseed, it is said, cannot be sold to the mills above $2,30. No movement in Timothy seed.

SALT—Allegheny river brands quoted at $2 for small lots in store.

STRAW—Sales at $12 per ton.

WHISKY—A shade easier. Highwines, $1,05; Common Rectified $1,05; and Proof, do, $1,15.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 26, 1869.

The metal market is quiet but steady with a demand about equal to the supply, and with no accumulation of stock, prices are fully sustained. Notwithstanding the orders for bar iron are reported as falling off slightly, the mills are pretty generally in full blast, and so far as we can learn card rates are strictly adhered to.

The arrivals of eastern irons have been much larger recently which is owing to the reduction in freights, and the increase in business will more than make up for the decline in freights to the Central Railroad Company.

Private advices from London report that the English Iron markets are very firm and tending upwards, which is regarded as a good omen, as it will have a tendency to check importations from there to this country.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about at a stand last evening with four feet two inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather has again turned warm and cloudy, the mercury at 4 P. M. last evening being up to 48, with every appearance of rain.

The New State, from Wheeling, is the only arrival and departure we have to notice. She took out a large number of plows and wagons which will be reshipped at Wheeling on the barges of the Liberty No. 4 for New Orleans.

The Maggie Hays, from Cincinnati, had not arrived up to the time we left the landing.

The Mollie Ebert has commenced receiving for Cincinnati, and will take her departure on Tuesday.

The Julia No. 2, from Zanesville, will be here on Monday.

—Capt. B. F. Hall has taken charge of the towboat Albion.

—The Leonidas, from New Orleans, was at Cairo on Wednesday.

—The Glasgow was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday.

—The Cumberland River was rising on Wednesday with 5½ feet on Harpeth Shoals.

—The War Eagle recently sunk, has been raised and gone to La Crosse for repairs.

—Monroe Bolling, a well known steamboat mate, died in Nashville on Saturday night last.

—J. F. Kelling, coal dealer, of Cincinnati, has purchased the towboat Jim Watson for $3,600.

Huse, of St. Louis, by the following citizens of Lasalle, Ill., each selling one fourth: Michael Byrne, K. P. Adams, J. T. Bartlett, and S. G. Hatch. —A Louisville special to the Cincinnati Commercial, says: The masonary work on the bridge was finished this morning, as was also the iron work on the truss over the Indiana Chute, and the obstruction will be removed from that passage in the course of the next few days. This leaves but two spans unfinished, which will require some two weeks work before the cars can pass over the bridge.

—The Sioux City Journal, of the 8th, says: On the down trip of the North Alabama, eight discharged soldiers spent $1,600 for liquor. It must be remembered, however, that it does not always require many ten-gallon kegs to contain liquor to that value. The party started with from $700 to $1,000 each, and the day after their arrival in Sioux City, two of their number pawned their watches to enable them to procure money to pay their railway fare home.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver complaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with remarkable success. Full directions accompany each bottle, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1,50 per bottle, or $7,50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my18:130-d&F

Mayor's Court.—There were but seventeen unfortunate victims before the Mayor yesterday morning.

The First Presbyterian church (Rev. S. F. Scovel's) is to be furnished with a new $10,000 pipe organ, containing all the modern improvements, stops, &c.

Illegal.—A. J. Higby made information before Alderman Shore, yesterday, against Siegel and Kercher, for selling liquor on Sunday, upon which a warrant was issued.

At Col. J. D. Egan's first class and popular book, news and literary depot, No. 41 Sixth avenue, subscriptions are received at publishers' rates for all the leading magazines and periodicals.

Plowed.—Yesterday morning a lot of plows, of Hall & Speer's make, lying on the Monongahela wharf, awaiting shipment, were demolished by a runaway team attached to a heavy wagon, which ran into them.

Supreme Court.—Wm. A. Shinn, Esq., on motion of James A. Lowry, Esq., and Wm. A. Leggat, Esq., on motion of Col. I. B. Duff, were yesterday severally admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

At Col. J. D. Egan's first class and popular book, news and literary depot, No. 41 Sixth avenue, lawyers and professional men will find the best assortment of legal cap, and sermon paper and general stationery, and at prices which defy competition.

$25 and Costs.—George B. McKee, formerly a police officer, was arrested on Thursday evening on a charge of disorderly conduct and lodged in the lock up. Yesterday morning after a hearing he was fined $25 and costs which he paid and was discharged.

Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, of New York, will preach to-morrow morning and evening in the First Baptist church, Fourth avenue, between Grant and Ross streets. Morning services at 10½ o'clock. Evening at 7½ o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to be present.

The Pittsburgh Zouaves, a new military organization, is being rapidly recruited to the standard. This will be a very fine company, and as more members will be taken, application should at once be made to Major Samuel Kilgore, at his office in City Hall, where the books are opened.

Disorderly.—Mary Ann Daly made information, before Alderman Ammon, yesterday, charging Charlotte Conner with disorderly conduct. She alleges that the accused threw a bucket of ashes in her yard while she was hanging out clothes, and called her ugly names. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Expensive Fun.—A prominent lumber merchant, residing in the Twelfth ward, interfered with a policeman Thursday night to such an extent that the officer was compelled to arrest him and take him to the station house. He deposited thirty dollars for his appearance before the Mayor the next morning, but failing to appear the money was forfeited.

A Willing Victim.—John McClusky came to the Mayor's office yesterday and requested that he be committed to jail for a short time. He said there were twelve able bodied men continually pursuing him to take his life, and he thought he would be safer in jail than any place else. The Mayor was of the same opinion and committed him for ten days.

Railroad Official Robbed.—About half past nine o'clock Thursday night, Mr. J. N. Hall, clerk at the Allegheny Valley Railroad office, was garroted and robbed on Canal street. Two men did the business, and secured a small traveling satchel and pocket book containing ten dollars. The satchel was found empty on the ground next morning. Mr. Hall was not hurt, and the men are not known.

Hearing.—A Hearing in the case of the commonwealth vs. Carlos J. Ferdinand, who is charged with larceny by bailee, said larceny consisting, as set forth in the information of "Unlawfully taking and converting to his own private use, certain dispatches by telegraph and other documents received by the proprietors of the Republic newspaper, from the Western Associated Press, and did unlawfully convert the same to his own private use &c.," will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the office of Alderman McMasters.

City Hall.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of City Hall, which is now in splendid order for renting. The Market Committee expended several thousand dollars lately in refitting and refurnishing it, and present it now as a formidable rival to any in this end of the State. It is supplied with dining hall and kitchen, making it very handy for balls and parties. The rent has been materially reduced. Full information can be obtained by calling on Capt. Samuel Kilgore, Market Superintendent, at his office in the hall.

Important Revenue Notice.

Retail tobacco dealers should remember that the revenue laws forbid the selling of cigars, tobacco, &c., out of anything but stamped boxes. The custom now is to remove the cigars from the boxes into glass jars for display, from which they are sold. This is a violation of the law and subjects the dealer to a confiscation of all his goods. Collector Davis has received orders for its enforcement and after the First of December will have it stringently carried out. Retail dealers should make a note of the fact and profit thereby.

Our Railroads and Bridges.

The following statement from the returns at Collector Davis' office exhibits the monthly business of the railroads and bridges centering in the city. That of the Fort Wayne is for the month of August, the immense business of the road rendering it impossible for them to return a report at the appointed time each month. All the others are for October. The Pennsylvania Railroad returns, the account at Philadelphia, and the Mechanic street Bridge in Allegheny. The tax is 2½ per cent. on the receipts.

Death of an Old Citizen.

We are pained to announce this morning the demise of Mr. J. J. Johnston, Sr., a highly esteemed citizen, which occurred at his residence, in Allegheny, yesterday afternoon. The deceased was in the seventy-third year of his age, more than forty of which had been identified with the growth and history of this vicinity. At one time he was connected with the lamented Fleeson and others in the anti-slavery movement hereabouts, and cast his vote in the Old Third ward, of this city, in that direction when only two others in the place were of his way of thinking. He was known for his strict integrity, intelligence and kindness of heart, especially to the young, and will be sincerely mourned by friends and acquaintances, of whom he had many. He leaves a widow, together with a family of children, all of whom, however, are of age and established in the city. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

At their Old Tricks.

Johnny Robinson and "Snibbs" Arnold were, from what we can learn, at some of their old tricks Thursday night, an establishment presided over by "Georgie Reynolds," on Church avenue, Allegheny, being the scene of their operations. It is alleged by "Georgie," who made information at the Mayor's office yesterday charging them with malicious mischief, that they came to her house at a late and unreasonable hour of the night and demanded admittance, which was refused them, whereupon they made an assault upon the doors and effected an entrance by breaking them off the hinges. When inside of the house they amused themselves by breaking the furniture and such other articles of a perishable nature as they could lay their hands upon. The Allegheny police were called in, but, it is stated, were deterred from arresting the intruders, both of whom were armed and threatened to shoot. Robinson was arrested yesterday morning and taken to the Mayor's office, where he denied being at the house of Georgie Reynolds, and gave bail for a hearing. "Snibbs" was arrested last night and locked up for a hearing.

INTERESTING OCCASION.

A Fitting Compliment Paid Hon. Robert W. Mackey, Treasurer of Pennsylvania.

Few citizens in this community, and, indeed, in the entire Commonwealth, have more warm, personal friends and admirers than Hon. Robert W. Mackey, the able, efficient and courteous State Treasurer, and there are none who more richly deserve the full estimation and hearty regard of his fellow citizens. Kind and generous in disposition, ever willing to reach out a helping hand to those in need of succor, assistance and encouragement, courteous to all, and gratefully mindful of the kind offices in his own behalf that are prompted by friendship, he is in every respect worthy the full measure of estimation and consideration in which held by all classes of our people. The proud, exalted and responsible position of honor and trust he has attained and the certainty he has of being continued as his own successor during the next year in the office whose duties he has so faithfully and ably discharged, are matters of pleasure and congratulation with his army of friends in this, his native city. It was to give expression to a sentiment of gratification which largely prevails over his success, and to assure him in what regard he is held at home, that a banquet in his honor was arranged by a large number of personal friends, and held last night at McGinley's elegant dining rooms on Wood street. There were in attendance nearly two hundred gentlemen, representing all shades of politics, creeds and interests, and the assemblage thoroughly reflected the leading and progressive elements of our great cities, and was in its mere gathering together as high and as marked a compliment as any gentleman in public or private life could desire to have shown him. It seemed like the marriage of the two great political parties, for hand in hand were the leaders who so desperately struggle to strangle each other and obtain supremacy in the heated election campaign. They forgot politics in their desire to pay tribute to a fellow-citizen worthy their honor and esteem.

THE ORGANIZATION.

At nine o'clock Gen. James S. Negley, the able and distinguished member of Congress from this district, called the meeting to order, when the following organization was effected:

Chairman, Hon. Jas. S. Negley.

Vice Presidents, Hon. Jared M. Brush, Hon. James P. Barr, Bernard Rafferty, Esq., and Col. Andrew Scott.

Secretaries, Messrs. Hugh McMasters and J. E. Patterson.

Gen. Negley, in a neat and appropriate speech, paid a high tribute to the worth and excellence of the guest of the occasion, and announced that he had the pleasure of introducing J. C. McCarthy, Esq., who had a duty to perform on behalf of a large number of Mr. Mackey's friends, in the way of presenting to him a magnificent, solid and elaborate gold headed cane, as an earnest of the esteem in which he is held in this community.

Mr. McCarthy proceeded in his accustomed happy manner, and, after bearing testimony to the worth of the recipient, in felicitous manner handed over the gift. The cane is very valuable, and bears the inscription

"Presented to the Hon. R. W. Mackey by his Pittsburgh friends as a mark of their regard and esteem."

It was specially manufactured for the occasion after a new and novel design, by those popular and first class jewelers, Messrs. Reineman, Meyran & Siedle, Fifth avenue.

Mr. Mackey graciously responded, and delegated W. D. Moore, Esq., to return thanks in his behalf, which he did in that able, eloquent and dignified manner which renders him conspicuous as an orator.

THE BANQUET.

After these preliminary exercises the guests repaired to the commodious dining room where a sumptuous banquet board, groaning beneath the weight of the good and toothsome things spread upon it in abundance, was invitingly and tastefully spread. The supper was highly creditable to Mr. McGinley, who enjoys high reputation as a popular caterer. After the cloths were removed and sparkling wines were introduced, the Chairman proclaimed that sentiments and speeches were in order. Among those who made happy and appropriate addresses were Hon. J. S. Negley, Mr. John Flinn, Hon Jared M. Brush, Daniel O'Neill, Esq., Col. J. P. Barr, Wm. C. Moreland, Esq., J. H. Page, Esq., Secretary of the Connellsville Railroad, Maj. Russell Errett, Edward Heuse, Esq., David Sims, Esq., John C. McCarthy, Esq., Hon. Thomas Howard, Hon. R. W. Mackey, Col. Wm. Ramsey, T. W. Davis, Esq., Evan Jones, Esq., Col. Andrew Scott, Wm. J. Anderson, Esq., Fred. Magee, Esq., and several other gentlemen. The greatest good cheer prevailed, and it was at a late hour that the party adjourned, highly delighted with the occasion. We hope Mr. Mackey may live long to enjoy the gift bestowed, and that he may continue, up to the close of his useful life, to enjoy the respect and esteem of his fellow citizens.

DROPPED DEAD.

A Stranger in the City—An Emigrant's Sudden and Mysterious Death—How it Happened, and Who He Is.

Last night, about half past eleven o'clock, one of the city police, while patrolling his beat near the Elevator, on Liberty street, discovered a man crawling between the railroad tracks. He accosted the stranger, and found that he was an emigrant, sick, and hunting a hotel. The officer assisted him around to Neibuhr's, 376 Penn street. Immediately upon getting into the barroom the man caught hold of a post to save himself from falling, and trembled violently. When questioned, he only replied, in German, "I'm sick, and want a bed." The proprietor directed a servant to prepare a room, and in a moment attempted to lead the man out of the bar room to the place. At the door, leading out, however the man suddenly dropped speechless. A bed was hastily prepared upon the floor, upon which he was laid. In five minutes when he was again approached, life was found to be extinct. He never seemed to have breathed after falling at the door. Accompanying the man was a Bohemian, who stated they, in company with a family of German emigrants, had come from New York. The Bohemian, on the way out, noticed the man in convulsions once, and in reply to an inquiry learned that he had been attacked in a similar manner at other times. The whole party arrived at the Union Depot on the 10:30 train. A short time after the deceased started out to find a hotel, stating that he was sick, and that was the last heard of him. He was a German, without friends and been in this country about eight months. This much was learned from the Bohemian. He had with him a carpet sack. In his pocket book was found a ticket for Evansville, Ind., via Pan Handle railroad. The valise was taken to the lockup and opened but found to contain nothing but clothing and a few trinkets, together with a passport from Nombre to Havre, given to Fredollin Zolle. The body was removed to Aiken's undertaking establishment, where the matter will be fully investigated to-day.

The family whom the Bohemian stated were with him could not be found, but it is probable they are stopping at some of the hotels, and may attend the inquest.

Mortuary Report.

Following are the interments in the city of Pittsburgh, reported by Dr. W. Snively, Physician of Board of Health, from November 13, 1869, to November 20, 1869:

Of the above there were under one year, five; from one to two, four; from two to five, two; from forty to fifty, four; from fifty to sixty, one; from sixty to seventy, one; from ninety to one hundred, two.

Males, ten; females, 10; white, 20; colored, 0; total, 20.

Snibbs Again.

"Snibbs" Arnold was in the Allegheny lock-up yesterday morning. He had amused himself a short time before daybreak by kicking in the door of Georgie Reynolds establishment, on Church avenue. In this he was also assisted by Johnny Robinson. Officer Lafferty attempted to arrest the two, but Snibbs drew a revolver on him and he was compelled to retreat. Getting reinforcements he returned and secured Arnold, but Johnny had fled. "Snibbs" was fined $25 by Mayor Drum. He seemed to be flush of greenbacks, and paid the fine, at the same time exhibiting a well filled purse. A warrant has been issued for Robinson's arrest. Snibbs was arrested in this city Tuesday and given twenty-four hours to leave. He kept his word and left for—Allegheny.

OUTRAGED DECENCY.

How Public Morals are Preserved in Allegheny City—A Sad and Disgusting Street Spectacle.

Yesterday afternoon the blush of shame was called to the cheeks of hundreds of pedestrians on Federal street, Allegheny, who witnessed a disgusting and revolting exhibition of female depravity and degradation, coupled with an outrageous assumption of authority and lack of moral decency and consideration on the part of two mock custodians of the peace, yclept city police. We refer to the dragging forth, in broad daylight, from her home of sin and iniquity, the person of the notorious "Mollie Beech." She had evidently been aroused from a bed of shame and had no garb to cover her nakedness other than a night robe, which was torn and pulled to pieces by the brave officers charged with making the arrest. It was in this condition, in her bare feet, her limbs and body fully exposed to the sight of the many virtuous men and women who were walking on the pavements of Federal street, that this poor, weak and frail creature was fairly dragged from the corner of Church avenue to the tombs. Decent men and women turned away their heads in sorrow and disgust, and no one witnessed the sad and revolting exhibition of law and morality who did not openly denounce and censure the brutal conduct of the police. We hold that the arrest made, at such a time, and in such a manner, was not only a gross outrage perpetrated on the unfortunate woman, but was a direct and open insult to the entire Christian community. It is an awful commentary upon the morals of Allegheny, and reflects severely on the method of the municipal administration of justice on the other side of the river. We do not blame Mayor Drum in the matter, but we feel that an opportunity is presented for relieving his police force of the presence of men who have so little consideration and sense of decency in their compositions. At all events, the arrest should be made the subject of investigation, as the desire is universally felt that a rebuke be administered the offenders, and that the streets never again shall be made the theatre of a gross insult to common decency and public morality.

—Since writing the above we have received several communications on the subject which will be duly considered. We cannot help feeling glad that we are not alone in our censure, and that public opinion is at work.

Amusements.

Opera House.—"Leah the Forsaken," was presented to a large and appreciative audience at the Opera House last evening by Miss Lucille Western. The piece will be repeated at the matinee this afternoon and this evening, which closes Miss Western's engagement. "The Child Stealer" will be reproduced.

Pittsburgh Theatre.—The Tyrolean Opera Troupe and other novelties at the old Theatre continue to attract large audiences. The entire variety combination will appear in a grand bill at the matinee this afternoon, and also this evening.

"The Drummer Boy".—Monday evening the grand allegory of the "Drummer Boy; or, Battle of Shiloh," will be presented at the Academy of Music. The arrangements have been completed, and as there have been new features added to the piece since it was presented in this city last season, a most excellent entertainment may be anticipated.

Academy of Music.—Last evening Rev. J. Hyatt Smith was greeted with an audience considerably larger, and if possible more enthusiastic, than that of the preceding evening. The lecturer, by his keen humor, racy descriptions, broad and liberal views, and withal a certain peculiar eloquence and pathos of unusual power, seems to have taken our lecture-going public by storm and won his way into their highest admiration. He is certainly one of the finest platform orators and lecturers we have ever had at the Academy, and the favor with which he has been received is but another proof of the discrimination of our lecture public. Last evening "From the Pope to the Pyramids" was treated in an eloquent and exceedingly captivating style, which called forth applause frequent and of the heartiest character. The audience were so well pleased with the entertainment that at the close requests were made for a repetition. Mr. Smith, after consultation, consented to deliver another new lecture, and on Monday evening will discourse on "Whitfield, Spurgeon and Beecher, contrasted and compared." Such a lecture is suggestively interesting, and cannot fail, with Mr. Smith's consummate tact and ability, to be both entertaining and instructive.

Our Young Folks.

Fields, Osgood & Co., of Boston, the well-known enterprising publishers, elsewhere announce some things that will delight young people. "Our Young Folks" has advanced with rapid strides, and is now without a peer in catering for the rising generation. This superiority has been attained by brain and capital. The best literary minds are among the constant contributors, and no stint of money in its publication. This magazine is not of the "Mother Goose" sort but it contains matter which instructs and entertains, and requires young people to think, and also expands their minds. Science is implied, history is rendered like romances, and even the drudgery of every day life, so beautifully described in some of last year's articles, is made to appear as mere past-time. Not only are young minds invigorated by the capital papers in this magazine, but men in advanced years who have not the time, or have been deprived of educational advantages, may also learn much to profit. Look at the list of writers for 1870—writers of eminence, and on topics, too, that cannot fail to charm and interest. At the end of a year too, twelve numbers make a beautiful illustrated volume worthy to be on the parlor centre table.

Who Was He?

The distinguished stranger who passed down Fifth avenue yesterday afternoon, creating such an excitement by his appearance and calling forth remarks on all sides, "what a noble man" "How superbly dressed" had purchased his clothing since arrival in town from that long established popular and fashionable Clothing house of Mr. Wm. Hespenheide No. 50 Sixth street (St. Clair). His name could not be ascertained but a more important fact was discovered, that Mr. Hespenheide is prepared to furnish garments, for boys and men's wear, latest styles and fashions, warranted to fit perfectly, and please in every respect, for prices which to those who have heretofore been paying exorbitant rates, is simply astonishing. Give him a call.

Billposters' War.

The bill posting trade seems to be peculiarly productive of litigation. The feeling between the artistes seems to run very high, causing them on the slightest provocation to rush into legal technicalities. The latest was developed at Alderman Donaldson's office, yesterday, S. C. Albright complaining to that official that James Thackeray, his father-in-law, and a number of others, had torn and defaced a lot of bills just after he had finished putting them up. Thackeray has been once convicted of this offense and fined, but it don't seem to have finished him. The Alderman issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused for malicious mischief.

The Nick of Time.

Last night about twelve o'clock Capt. Reed, at the lockup, discovered a slight fire in Patterson's livery stable, the rear of which extends to Diamond alley, just below the tombs. When discovered the floor was slowly burning, but after a deal of trouble a window was broken open, the employes awakened and the fire finally put out without much damage. A coal from the stove on the second floor is supposed to have caused the incipient conflagration. Had it gone much farther the hay would have been reached, and then the stables in all likelihood would have been among the things that were but are not.

The Iron City College,

Whose card appears in another column, is undoubtedly one of the best conducted and most ably managed schools for boys and young men in the country. The course of study is comprehensive, thorough and practical, while the Principals, Messrs. J. C. Smith, A. M., and A. Cowley, have long been recognized as two of the most accomplished and devoted instructors anywhere to be found. The past record and the present high standing of the College, are not only a sufficient testimony to its merits, but the highest and best recommendation it can have.

A Few Days Longer.—Fowler & Wells will make examinations in Lafayette Hall, giving charts and full description. How to rise in the world and make the most of time and talent, explained, day and evening. tf.

The case of Patterson vs. Gillespie, reported yesterday, was resumed. On trial,

The Place to Buy Your Sweetmeats.

It is a physical weakness to be fond of toothsome sweets, and it is an actual necessity that we should know where to purchase them. We remain children throughout our whole lives in the one regard of a liking for sugared sweets, and the only danger we run in the gratification of the demands of the palate is that we pass through our mouths, in many instances, delicate poisons which sap away our lives. Sweetmeats should be pure to be health-giving, and unless you have confidence in those from whom you purchase, we would strongly advise against indulging in the luxury. Now, when selections are made out of the wide, varied and judiciously assorted stock of foreign and domestic manufacturers of candy to be found at the old established, popular and first-class house of Mr. George Beaven, No. 112 Federal street, Allegheny, there is a full guarantee that all deleterious sweetmeats are escaped. Mr. Beaven has for years enjoyed the reputation of leading in his business. His stock always embraces the finest of goods and his prices are the most reasonable. Indeed, nowhere west of New York, can a better, fresher or purer stock of foreign sweets, bonbons, fruits, jellies, nuts, etc., be found. We have long known Mr. Beaven as an enterprising, fair dealing and courteous business gentleman, eminently worthy the full share of patronage he draws to his doors. Give him a call for anything in his line, and you cannot fail to be pleased and satisfied.

Avoid Accidents.

The frequent reports of the loss of life from explosion of carbon oil lamps render it of great importance that consumers should know where to obtain a perfectly safe oil. Messrs. Pennock & Beeson, No. 19 Seventh (late Irwin) street, are manufacturing a beautiful White Oil, and are determined that no sample of their oil, wherever found, shall be below 110, fire test. A sample examined by us to day stood at 118, fire test, and was as limpid as water. We deem it very important that every family using carbon oil should make sure that any brought into their house should be non-explosive, and therefore safe in the hands of any child or servant in the family.

Wonderful Success of the Burdett.

There seems to be no exaggeration in the wonderful things attributed to the Burdett Organ, if we are to judge from the number sold by Kleber & Bro. Some half a dozen of them have been disposed of since yesterday. The tone of the Burdett Organ is so touching and pathetic that even strong men have been known to shed tears at the performance thereon of some simple home melody. The Burdett furnishes the music for the heart—the true music—and no one has ever heard that instrument without feeling a strong desire to become the possessor of one of them.

Fresh Oysters, game, and other delicacies are received daily at Burn's restaurant, corner of Smithfield street and Sixth avenue,—one of the best restaurants in the city. This establishment is proverbial for the manner in which everything in the line of edibles is served to its patrons. The most fastidious cannot find an objection to the manner in which the wants of the inner man are here supplied.

Ladies Should call in while out shopping and look at the new and handsome stock of fine lace goods just received at Moorhead's, No. 81 Market street. They are being sold off at astonishingly low prices, considering the style and quality. This house always enjoyed an enviable reputation in this line, and the present stock is not inferior to any that has ever been the in store.

Youngson's Saloon, corner of Smithfield street and Diamond alley, is just the place to get a delicately prepared, healthful and appetizing dish of oysters, game, &c. Meals are served at any hour to ladies or gentlemen. Cakes and confectionery of the finest kind are always on hand. Suppers provided for private parties in the neatest and most perfect style.

The little trouble among some of the newspaper fraternity, in which so much interest is centered, will have no effect whatever on those handsome, cheap and durable trunks, valises, satchels, etc., made by Liebler. His warehouse, No. 104 Wood street, will be found stocked with an assortment of these articles, which cannot be excelled.

Books and stationery at Egan's, No. 41 Smithfield street. A large lot of envelops, very cheap, and just suitable for business men. Books for all classes of people.
